

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A customized cover for generic binders, folders and portfolios, which cover is adapted to change the exterior appearance of the aforementioned items. A user can essentially
5 own a single binder, or the like, but can easily change the binder's exterior appearance simply by changing the cover. The covers are uniquely decorated and are made from different fabric types so that a user can select a cover to correspond with the aesthetics of the occasion. The fabric can also be water
10 repellant if desired.
